Product Spotlight: Paper-Based Boards

Coated Cardstock: medium density paper board, perfectly white both inside and out, available in varying thicknesses, great for low cost indoor posters, double sided printable

Corrugated Cardboard: paper-based board consisting of a fluted corrugated sheet between two flat linerboards, used as the primary material in our packaging, also available with white faced liners, great for custom printed boxes or life-size contour cut standees

Solution Showcase

Case Study: Meeting Your Packaging Needs

At BIGraphics, Inc, we take pride in our work from start to finish. We pay particular attention to the packaging of your jobs to ensure that they arrive in good condition. Over the years, and through trial and error, we have come up with a packaging process that is lightweight, but will completely protect your printed products. We construct our boxes to custom fit every flat job that we ship. By using foam around the sides of the boxes, we are able to ensure that the corners and edges of your posters will not get crushed or dented. We have had good success with our packaging methods with both UPS and FedEx, as well as with courier services.

Everyday Value

Paper-Based Boards

We are able to print directly onto cardboard or cardstock using our flatbed printers. The everyday low cost of these two media, partnered with the cost-effectiveness of direct to substrate printing, allows us to give you the best deal your money can buy for indoor posters, life-size standees, or custom printed boxes.
